

Retirement housing advice, information and mediation

Age Concern England's AIMS service has provided independent and impartial advice, information and dispute resolution services to residents of retirement housing since 1990.

If you would like information, have a problem, or are in a dispute with another resident, your landlord or managing agent contact AIMS for free advice in confidence on 0845 600 2001

People who are deaf or hard of hearing can contact AIMS using BT typetalk.

The AIMS language line is available for residents who do not use English as their main language.
